PRESIDENT'S COLUMN

Larry Matheny

Our summer sectional concluded this past weekend and was a success. A report with the numbers and winners is on page three. Other good news is the continued growth of our unit. Our net gain for the past twelve months is seventeen new members. A chart on page ten shows the breakdown of our members by rank.

Most of our local clubs are gaining in attendance. The Daytime Duplicate Club that meets on Mondays has increased its average table count from 5-7 to 12-14. The Fort Collins Duplicate Players Club meeting on Wednesday has also made a nice increase in the average number of tables. The attendance at our Saturday unit games has leveled off but they remain popular.

I want to remind everyone of the important information on our web page. There is a new problem hand each week along with game schedules and results. Please continue to support your local clubs and tournaments and let the board members know what we can do to improve bridge in Northern Colorado.

The Summer Sectional was very successful with 331 tables in play. Our tournament co-chairs, Bill Greeley, Gail Greeley, and Gail Hanson deserve tons of credit for their hard work. We also want to thank everyone who helped organize, find partners, set up, bake goodies, offer non-stop hospitality (and good competition), assist with the directing, caddy, and clean-up.

EDUCATION

The Northern Colorado Bridge Unit 363 is a Community of Learners

The onset of fall reminds us that it's time again to get back to "school". Once again the learning opportunities for members of Unit 363 are abundant. There are many ways to continue the learning process. In addition to local classes, unit lessons and great bridge books, the internet provides yet another way to become better at the game.

These are just some of the many internet sites that can provide you with the chance to improve your game:

Northern Colorado Unit 363: www.northerncoloradobridge.com

This website provides information about local bridge games. It also has lessons and information about bidding, defense and play of the hand. There are also weekly bidding and play problems and post-mortem analyses that help players of all skill levels to improve.

ACBL (American Contract Bridge League): www.acbl.org

This website is the official site for duplicate bridge. You can learn about bridge and play bridge on-line both for practice and in real time with partners. They also have a very good two-level tutorial program.

OKBridge: www.okbridge.com

This is a for fee website if you want to play. However, you can watch experts play without a fee.

Bridge Base Online: www.bridgebaseonline.com

This is a free site where you can play and watch expert players in real tournament. There are fees for some activities.

Bridge Winners: www.BridgeWinners.com

This is a new site for bridge players launched by members of our own unit, Kitty and Steve Cooper. It includes articles, a convention card editor and facebook features.

Karen's Bridge Library: www.home.comcast.net/~kwbridge/

On this site you can get information about bridge including bidding information at all levels.

These are just a small sample of sites that are available. If you know of others that you enjoy, please share them with me and other members of our unit. Enjoy surfing!

RESPONDING TO A TAKEOUT DOUBLE

By Larry Matheny

While you and your partner may usually reach the right contract when you have the auction to yourselves, the opponents often make the first bid. One of the tools at your disposal is the TAKEOUT DOUBLE.

Here are some guidelines for responding to partner's takeout double:

OPP	PARD	OPP	YOU
1♣	DBL	P	?

Non-jump in new suit	0-8 points, usually a 4+ card suit
Jump in new suit	9-11 points, non-forcing, a 4+ card suit
Cue bid of opp. Suit	12+, forcing
1NT	7-10 points, stopper in opponents' suit
2NT	11-13 points, stopper(s) in opponents' suit, invitational
Pass	Strong holding in opponent's suit; asks for a trump lead

Here are some exercises:

OPP	PARD	OPP	YOU
1♥	DBL	P	?

(a)	(b)	(c)	(d)
♠J976	♠6	♠J97	♠J8
♥632	♥632	♥Q10932	♥KJ98
♦5	♦A10765	♦87	♦K1076
♣K10872	♣Q765	♣832	♣J73
(e)	(f)	(g)	(h)
♠632	♠KQ53	♠AK76	♠7
♥Q63	♥75	♥8763	♥KQJ1083
♦A106	♦A1076	♦5	♦K65
♣Q542	♣854	♣KQ97	♣Q97

- a) 1♠ Help locate a major suit fit.
- b) 2♦ Bid your best suit.
- c) 1♠ A poor choice, but the least of evils. Your hand isn't strong enough for a 1NT bid and your hearts are too weak for a penalty pass.
- d) 1NT If your side should have the values for game, it is much more likely to be in no-trump than in diamonds, and you are just strong enough for constructive 1NT response.
- e) 2♣ Your hearts probably won't be an adequate stopper opposite partner's implied shortness. You should also discount the poorly placed heart queen.
- f) 2♠ Jump to show a hand worth 9-11 points.
- g) 2♥ Game is probable, especially since none of your values are wasted in hearts, so cue-bid to show at least 12 points. If partner now bids 2♠, bid 4♠.
- h) Pass Allowing the double to stand and command a trump lead from partner.

DID YOU KNOW

By Dawn Foltz

ACCORDING TO LAW 24:

Regarding exposed cards DURING THE AUCTION: When it is determined that during the auction one or more cards is IN A POSITION FOR THE FACE TO BE SEEN BY PARTNER, the Director shall require that every such card be left face up on the table until the auction ends. Information from cards exposed is authorized for the non-offending side but unauthorized for the offending side.

If the offender becomes declarer or dummy, the cards are picked up and returned to the hand. If the offender becomes a defender, every such exposed card becomes a penalty card, then:

1. If it is a single card below the rank of an honor and not prematurely led (i.e. a dropped card during the auction) there is no further rectification.
2. If it is a single card of honor rank or is any card prematurely led (before the auction is over), offender's partner must pass when next it is his turn to call.
3. If two or more cards are so exposed (during the auction), offender's partner must pass when next it is his turn to call.
